PROTECTIVE ORDER RE
DISCLOSURE OF CERTAIN WITNESS
STATEMENTS TO DEFENSE COUNSEL

18 At the last calling of this case on June 2, 2006, there was colloquy between the 19 Court and counsel about whether the government would provide defense counsel with 20 copies of DEA reports of interviews of cooperating defendants. Government counsel
21 acknowledged that to date, no such reports had been turned over to defense counsel.
22 Government counsel noted that these statements would be Jencks Act statements, subject
23 to disclosure as provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3500. See also Fed.R.Crim.P. 26.2. The Court 24 indicated its preference that such statements be provided to defense counsel in advance of 25 the date required by law.

26 The government is agreeable to providing these statements to defense counsel 27 earlier than required by law, subject however, to a protective order that addresses the 28 concerns expressed by government counsel as to the safety of the cooperating defendant

1 witnesses.

2 Good cause appearing, the disclosure of these materials to defense counsel is
3 subject to the following terms and conditions of this Protective Order:

4 1. The United States will provide to defendant's counsel, Doron Weinberg,
5 copies of these memoranda described above. These memoranda shall be used in 6 connection with this case and for no other purpose.

7 2. These materials shall not be copied. However, the contents of these 8 materials may be disclosed by defense counsel to and discussed with the defendant, and to 9 any other person working on this case with Attorney Weinberg. A copy of the 10 memoranda shall not be provided to the defendant.

11 3. Disclosure of additional memoranda by the government for interviews of 12 cooperating defendants conducted after the filing of this Protective Order, shall be made 13 by the government in accordance with this Order, and their use by defense counsel shall 14 be subject to the provisions of this Protective Order.

15 4. This Protective Order shall continue in force and effect until further order
16 of this Court.

17
18 IT IS SO ORDERED.
